EVERY day brings invitations for the numerous spring weddings that will crowd the month of April, and there is a vast amount of interest manifested in society here over the nearness of the many prominent nuptials to be celebrated throughout the weeks immediately following Easter. At every wedding representative society will be found attending in more or less large numbers, for some will be big church affairs, when the channels will be gay with flowers and beautiful bridesmaids, and the church filled with distinguished guests, and others will take place very quietly in the bride's home, owing to mourning. Spring weddings are always beautiful and very attractive, with every one wearing their prettiest frocks, and the summer costumes adding greatly to the charm of the events. Last year one very prominent bride, whose wedding was a big, fashionable affair, came to church with her maids in a big motor car filled with apple blossoms and hung with pink flowers.

For the past week there is nothing at all of note, and still less to be said of this one. The rains have interfered in almost every case of tennis or golf at the clubs, and a few lonely teas are all that has happened.

Charlotteville Wedding.
One of the prominent weddings of interest to society throughout the South, and particularly in Virginia, where the bride's family is very widely known, took place last night in the home of the Misses McKennie, at the University of Virginia, when Miss Marie Marcella McKennie became the bride of Guy Warrington Pluck. Quaint flowers were used everywhere, and a display of smiles and spring blossoms hid the windows and doorways. Miss Emma Wood played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" at the entry of the bride party.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white chiffon, built over satin, and trimmed with duchess lace. It was made with a court train, and her tulle veil was fastened with a coronet of amethysts. She carried a white prayer-book, with markers of lilacs of the valley. R. W. Bainbridge, of New York, gave his niece away. Two younger sisters of the bride, Misses Jane and Isobel McKennie, were maids of honor. They wore frocks of pale blue and yellow silk and carried great bouquets of Easter lilies. Mr. R. B. Briggs, of Fredericksburg, was the groom's best man.

Owing to recent mourning in the bride's family, only a few intimate friends and relatives were invited to the house and the small reception which followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Pluck left for an extended Northern tour, and will make their home in Buffalo, N. Y., on their return some weeks later.

Guests from a distance were Miss Bainbridge, R. W. Bainbridge, of Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wilson, of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Doane, of Washington; Miss Juliana Lokell, of Fall River, Mass.

Concerning Mrs. Potter.
Mr. and Mrs. James Brown Potter, who have been staying at the St. Regis, New York, motored Thursday to Tuxedo Park, where they will stay until after Easter week. Mrs. Potter was formerly Miss May Hendon, of this city, and is one of the best known women in New York society.

At the Woman's Club.
The woman's welfare department of the National Civic Federation will hold a conference at the Woman's Club tomorrow afternoon at a quarter before 5 o'clock. Mrs. John Hays Hammond, chairman of the organization, will be in charge of the meeting, and short addresses will also be made by Mrs. Mary Hatch Willard, Mrs. R. T. Chew, Mrs. Richard Wainwright, of New York, and other equally prominent women on the improvement of the living and working conditions of industrial employees. A reception for the speakers will be given in the club parlors immediately after the meeting. Mrs. J. Allison Hodges will be chairman of the day.

On Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock the Literary Round Table will meet to discuss Marguerite Andoux's much talked of book, "Marie Claire," under the direction of Mrs. L. R. Dashiell.

Billups-Kemp.
Mr. and Mrs. Arrelous W. Kemp have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Annie Ames, to Harry Evans Billy, of this city, to take place on Thursday afternoon, April 20, at half-past 4 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, "Elmwood," Norfolk county, Va.

Visiting in Washington.
Mrs. Henry W. Davis, of Sandy Spring, Md., who has been the house guest of Mrs. Warner Moore, in this city, left last week for Washington, where she will visit friends. It is her intention to return to Richmond to attend the Wednesday Club concert, to which she is a subscriber. Mrs. Davis will be a guest of Mrs. M. C. Patterson at her home, "Hill Crest," on the Cary Street Road, on her return to this city.

Children-Goodman.
One of the interesting Virginia weddings to take place this week will be that of Miss Margaret Buchanan Goodman and Walter Douglas Chiles, son of Mrs. L. P. Chiles, of Louisa, which will be celebrated on Wednesday at high noon in the Christian Church, Cuckoo, Va. Dr. W. M. Forrest, of the University of Virginia, will officiate, and Miss Jessie Spencer will preside at the organ.

Miss Nancy Lee Goodman will attend her sister as maid of honor, and Aubrey Spencer, of Richmond, will act as best man. Joseph Thompson, Thomas P. West, Robert Simpson, and J. D. Hitt will be ushers. The bride will be given away by her brother, Henry Gaines Goodman.

A reception after the ceremony will be held at "The Oaks," the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Borden Pendleton. A number of guests from a distance will be invited to the wedding.

To Move to Richmond.
Mrs. E. B. Pope, of Atlanta, will shortly move to Richmond, where she expects to make her home for some time. Mrs. John L. Frank, of Atlanta, entertained a box party at the Grand on Thursday afternoon of last week complimentary to Mrs. Pope and her sister, Mrs. Louisa Hopkins, who has recently moved from Baltimore to Atlanta.

Cards Out.
Cards have been received in Richmond for the marriage of Miss Julia Howe Pinckney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Pinckney, of Charleston, S. C., and William F. Gray, formerly of Norfolk, now of Charleston. The wedding will be celebrated on Tuesday evening, April 18, in St. Phipps Church, Charleston, S. C., at 8 o'clock.

At the Art Club.
An appreciative, though small, audience greeted Admiral Webster last Tuesday afternoon at the Art Club rooms and listened to a reading from a recent publication, entitled "Art and Crafts of Old Japan." The extracts read by Admiral Webster comprised a clear exposition of the differences existing between the art of Japan and that of the rest of the world. The writer taking the view that in many respects the older nation was at an advantage in the comparison. A chap-

At the Art Club.

An appreciative, though small, audience greeted Admiral Webster last Tuesday afternoon at the Art Club rooms and listened to a reading from a recent publication, entitled "Art and Crafts of Old Japan." The extracts read by Admiral Webster comprised a clear exposition of the differences existing between the art of Japan and that of the rest of the world. The writer taking the view that in many respects the older nation was at an advantage in the comparison. A chapter on Landscape Gardening and the Arrangement of Flowers ended the reading, after which tea was served by members of the entertainment committee of the club.

On Thursday at noon Miss Nora Houston gave an interesting account of the work and art of Peter Paul Rubens.

Next Tuesday at 4:30 o'clock Mrs. John D. Clothier will give an extended talk on the various processes connected with the ornamentation of falcon and also on the art of color as applied to work in glaze and under-glaze.

Members of the Art Club are requested to bring their friends to these interesting occasions.

To Visit in Virginia.

A New Orleans exchange contains the following: "Miss Margaret Lelong left yesterday for the Plains, in Fauquier county, Va., where she will spend the next several months with friends. She has been spending the later spring and summer seasons in Virginia for the past several years. Miss Lelong joined Mrs. Gilbert Green in Mississippi yesterday, and will take the trip to Virginia with her, and will be guest in Warrenton for two or three days before continuing on to The Plains. Mrs. Green has been visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Green, in Laurel, since leaving New Orleans a short time ago. She will be at her home in Warrenton, Va., for a long stay."

Miss Lelong is quite well known in Richmond.
